SHERIFF BROWN ANNOUNCES 2011 CITIZENS POLICE ACADEMY

The Army wants you to be all that you can be; the Marine Corps wants a few good men; the Air Force wants you to aim high; and the Navy wants you to accelerate your life.

What does the Bedford County Sheriff's Office – Citizens Police Academy (BCSO-CPA) want? All of the above. You can make a difference. The BCSO CPA is an educational opportunity designed for the citizens of the county. The CPA is a 14-week course (one night each week) that introduces topics like the mission and values of the BCSO, Crime Prevention, Community Relations, Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force, Safe Surfin' and many other interesting topics.

This Academy affords you the opportunity to become involved and assist the BCSO by volunteering for traffic control/parking vehicles and collecting statistical data for traffic studies and collecting statistical data. Join this active team and reserve your space in the next Citizens Police Academy by contacting Sgt. David Mays: 540-586-7718.

The next scheduled class begins March 08, 2011, at 6:30 PM at the Bedford County Sheriff's Office, 1345 Falling Creek Road, Lower Level. You must be 18 years or older, applications are required and permission for background checks must be granted. Applications close Friday, March 4, 2011. Call today!
