Bedford County Treasurer's Office Achieves Accreditation

Recognition signifies Treasurer and staff are good stewards of local funds

Bedford, Virginia—The Bedford County Treasurer's office recently received its accreditation from the Treasurer's Association of Virginia (TAV).

The certification was presented to Treasurer Kim Snow on June 14, 2019 as part of the Treasurers' Association of Virginia's annual conference in Arlington.

The Office Accreditation program is a voluntary professional certificate program that is overseen by the Treasurers' Association of Virginia. Sixty-five treasurer's offices received accreditation this year. It is estimated that combined, the accredited offices handled close to $13 billion dollars in Fiscal Year 2018.

“Those treasurers that choose to submit to the accreditation process take an extra step to ensure they are good stewards of their locality's funds,” says Treasurer Association President Evelyn Powers. “These offices have demonstrated they are of the highest caliber and integrity. Accreditation represents the hardworking, dedicated nature of our treasurers and their staff throughout the Commonwealth.”

While it is not required for any treasurer's office to be accredited, receiving accreditation acknowledges that the office meets the statewide best practices for performance in treasury management.

“Bedford County strongly encourages its professional staff to pursue life-long learning and best practices in their respective fields,” says Robert Hiss, Bedford County Administrator. “The Treasurer's Office accreditation is a great example of pursuing these attributes.”

As part of the accreditation process, offices must successfully pass an outside audit with no findings of material weakness. The rigorous accreditation process also requires proof of continuing education such as attendance of an ethics course by the treasurer and educational requirements for staff. Accredited offices are required to have written policies in place addressing areas such as personnel, customer service and delinquent collections.

ADMINISTRATION

“The Treasurers Association is committed to ensuring that elected treasurers have the resources and tools they need to serve the citizens who elected them,” concludes Powers. “We are proud of the 65 offices which received accreditation this year and the hard work and dedication it took for each of them to meet the highest standards of excellence in fiscal management.”
